FIRST NIGHT MORRIS ANNOUNCES NEW YEAR'S EVE PERFORMANCE LINEUP:
International Flair and Annual Favorites
Promise Something for Everyone

The Board of Trustees of First Night Morris, Inc. announces more than 90 performances to be held throughout Morristown this New Year's Eve. For the 18th consecutive year, First Night Morris County will feature world-class talent from near and far in a spectacular showcase of arts and culture.

Known for both its affordability and diverse array of options for families, couples and anyone looking for a fun and entertaining way to ring in the New Year, First Night Morris County 2010 - held on December 31, 2009 from 7:00 pm - midnight - will feature many artists new to First Night and also bring back the acts so popular that they have their own annual following as First Night Morris favorites.

All who purchase admission buttons can enjoy two fireworks shows and hundreds of performers in more than 90 events and shows mostly within walking distance of the Morristown Green. Among those performers back again this year are:
